

Business Area: Engineering, Monitoring, Technical Support

Job Title: 6-month Internship Opportunity

Location: R Energy 1 Office, Maroussi, Greece

Responsibilities:

- Monitoring our solar plants via monitoring software systems and escalating all important system alerts
- Visually monitors and reads parameters, data points, and sensor outputs at specified intervals to verify operating conditions
- Perform diagnostic analysis of operating data to assess operating performance and make recommendations for improvement
- Anticipate typical problems, identify potential or recurring problems, discover opportunities for improvements, and take appropriate action
- Communication with technicians and the maintenance teams
- Advises Operations supervision/management of daily activities and irregularities in plant operation.
- Reviews operating logs, records, and plant performance as required.
- Performs other duties as required.

Necessary Qualifications & Skills:

- Very good knowledge of MS Office, Autocad
- Excellent knowledge of English language
- Excellent organizational and communication skills